DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. The amendment filed 6/4/08 is objected to under 35 U.S.C. 132(a) because it introduces new matter into the disclosure. 35 U.S.C. 132(a) states that no amendment shall introduce new matter into the disclosure of the invention. The added material which is not supported by the original disclosure is as follows: on page 1, "temperature-compensated method". The method steps as is now found in claim 2.

Applicant is required to cancel the new matter in the reply to this Office Action.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

3. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the enablement requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to enable one skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and/or use the invention. There are numerous discrepancies between claims and the disclosure. For instance, the specification refers to a "removable exhaust valve” and the claims call for a “removable exhaust pipe” such as in claims 1,2 and 5. Further, the claims call for “leveler” as in claim 2, “a locking apparatus” and a “two-axis leveling apparatus” (as in claim 4) and the disclosure refers only to a “lever 6”. Furthermore, the steps of claim 2 do not coincide with the steps of the method given in the disclosure.

4. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention. See paragraph 1 above.

5. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

6. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. In claim 1, “level-able” should probably be --levelable-- on line 3. On line 3, a comma should follow “vehicle”. On line 8, it is unclear if there is a pipe or a valve. On line 13, “though” should probably be --through--. In claim 2, “level-able” should probably be --levelable-- on line 2. On line 2, a comma should follow “vehicle”. On lines 2-3 and 18, “the at least one graduated tank” lacks antecedent basis. On lines 5,16 or 26, etc., it is unclear if there is a pipe or a valve. On line 8, “though” should probably be --through--.

Further, on line 3, there is reference to “a filling station” and on line 11, it is called “a fuel station storage tank” and on line 17, “a fuel station underground tank”, uniform terminology should be employed. On line 13, reference to “leveler” is unclear. Further, line 18 is unclear, how do you fill one tank “one at a time”. On line 19, does the nozzle differ from that of line 3 as implied by the “a”? On line 20, “it” is unclear and “the fuel pump nozzle” lacks clear antecedent basis. On lines 22-3, “the at least one calibrated tank” lacks antecedent basis. Further, lines 32-33 are unclear with “closing valve the at least one tank valve”. In claim 3, on line 11, “though” should probably be --through--. In claim 4, references to “a locking apparatus” are unclear and do not have support. In claim 5, on line 2, is there a “pipe” or “valve”?
